

Mrs. Catlyn Slavens
Food Service Manager

Mrs. Catlyn Slavens serves as FCA's Food Service Manager and is passionate about caring for students through meaningful service and hospitality. She joined the FCA family in October 2025 and brings both experience and dedication to the school community.

Mrs. Slavens studied at Hyles-Anderson College and Landmark Baptist College. She worked in hospitality from 2010–2020 and served in education from 2020–2025, bringing a unique combination of service, leadership, and care to her role at FCA.

In addition to her professional background, Mrs. Slavens is a proud United States Navy Veteran. Her military service helped develop the discipline, leadership, and strong sense of responsibility she brings to FCA each day.

Mrs. Slavens loves serving at FCA because she believes the work is meaningful and impactful. She is passionate about providing students with healthy meals prepared with care, love, and purpose and views food service as an important way to support students both academically and personally throughout the school day.

FCA is grateful for Mrs. Slavens' dedication, servant's heart, and commitment to caring for the school community each day.
