

Mrs. Sherry Thompson
Teaching Assistant (Kindergarten & 1st Grade)

Mrs. Sherry Thompson serves as a Teaching Assistant for FCA's Kindergarten and First Grade classrooms and joined the school in November 2025. She faithfully supports teachers and students during these important foundational years of learning and growth.

Mrs. Thompson holds a Bachelor of Arts in Humanities from Florida Atlantic University and has spent much of her adult life serving in Christian education.

Her background includes service at St. Paul Lutheran School in Boca Raton, St. Andrew's Episcopal Church and Academy in Fort Pierce, and Morningside Academy in Port St. Lucie. Throughout her career, she has served in a variety of roles including teaching assistant, substitute teacher, office manager, church administrator, and aftercare director.

Mrs. Thompson believes there is no greater gift a child can receive than a Christian education. She is passionate about FCA's mission and grateful for the opportunity to help guide students as they grow academically, spiritually, and personally while developing into servants of Christ.
