

Mr. Jeremiah Garrett
High School Bible and Strength & Conditioning Teacher

Mr. Jeremiah Garrett teaches High School Bible and Strength & Conditioning at FCA. He joined the school in 2022 and is passionate about investing in students academically, spiritually, and personally while helping them build a strong biblical foundation.

Mr. Garrett holds a Bachelor's Degree in Pastoral Christian Ministries from Oral Roberts University and maintains ACSI Certified Bible Specialist Teacher certification.

Mr. Garrett began his teaching career in 2022 and enjoys watching students grow in their knowledge of Scripture and deepen their personal relationship with Jesus Christ. In his classroom, students are encouraged not only to study the Bible curriculum, but also to ask questions, engage in meaningful discussions, and explore biblical topics through a Christ-centered worldview.

Faith is integrated into every aspect of Mr. Garrett's teaching approach and classroom environment. He values the opportunity FCA provides for authentic faith conversations and intentional discipleship with students each day.

Mr. Garrett is also grateful that his own children are able to be educated in an environment where God's Word is taught daily. FCA is thankful for his commitment to biblical teaching, discipleship, and helping students grow in both faith and character.
