

Mr. Adam Strawser
Music, STEAM, & Electives Teacher

Mr. Adam Strawser teaches PK–2nd Grade Music, PK–5th Grade STEAM, and a variety of middle and high school electives at FCA, including Drama, Chess, and Game Design & Development. He enjoys providing students with creative, hands-on learning opportunities that encourage curiosity, critical thinking, and growth across multiple disciplines.

Mr. Strawser holds a Bachelor of Science in Music Education (K–12) from Messiah University and a Master of Music in Performance from Duquesne University. He also maintains a State of Florida Professional Educator Certificate in Music (K–12) along with an ACSI Professional Specialist Teacher Certificate in Music.

Mr. Strawser began his teaching career in 2020 and joined FCA in 2025. He is passionate about helping students develop skills they may not always experience in a traditional classroom setting and enjoys watching them discover the value of perseverance, practice, and hard work over time.

Faith is intentionally reflected throughout Mr. Strawser’s teaching and interactions with students. He strives to model a Christlike attitude in all he does while encouraging students to view the world through a biblical lens and treat one another as God’s eternal creations. His teaching is guided by Philippians 4:4–8 as he seeks to help students grow in both character and skill.
